This Week's Turkey Feature Highlights

Retail featuring is more active as retailers look forward to Christmas holiday meals. Offerings of fresh and frozen whole turkeys are more active than the previous week, but less active compared to the same week a year ago; prices are higher on fresh, lower on frozen compared to last year. Fewer stores feature fresh and frozen bone-in breasts compared to a year ago; prices are lower on fresh, higher on frozen. Rotisserie breasts are widely promoted and provide a great option for a quick and easy meal during this busy holiday season. Offerings on boneless white parts are less active, mostly cutlets and marinated tenders at higher prices. Dark parts are fully represented in this week's circulars; prices are higher. Ground turkey feature activity slows; the weighted average price is lower. Half of the ads on ground turkey are for 93% lean. Feature activity slows on deli items compared to the previous week. Service deli featuring is more active on processor brand thick slicing meats; fewer stores place value products in their ads. Prices are higher on the self-service deli items.
